Stefan and Carmen We shared news about Rev Wellington (Rafaela's dad) last Friday. He has improved a lot, yes, much more than what we thought. He is already preaching again. Hallelujah! The video we mentioned actually showed his brother Abenildo, who is mentally ill, as he was trying to "read" the Bible. Please continue to keep Rafaela and her parents and her uncle Abenildo in prayers. This is a Pastor's family and they are dear to our hearts. Thank you!

Praise report: my friend Quentin is improving... The doctors still need to see the last of the infectious fluids drain from his abdomen before performing more surgery. He is not entirely conscious, but improving. His wife states openly that prayer is helping. He and she are believers. Also: I request prayer for further guidance from the Holy Spirit and the Lord Jesus Christ as I am about to commit myself to being an Oblate; and Oblate serves the Lord the same way that a monk does, forsaking the role of a worldly man and "cleaving" to God... This is an exciting and bold step for me... As usual, I ask for prayers for my estranged daughter, an unbeliever today.

Alisha Drapeau
